Home Economics Teacher in a book. With many schools eliminating Home Economics or Life Skills classes, people may not have basic skills for providing healthy good tasting food for themselves or their family. Cooking Coach provides basic skills and information in a concise resource guide and recipe book in one location. In our fast-paced world, many do not have the time or inclination to search for information. The book includes information and recipes that have been used. Many are friend and family favorites that have been used many times for years. Readers can successfully use the recipes and basic measuring, shopping and entertaining information to be confident in the kitchen. The book is designed to make cooking enjoyable and eating even more fun.

Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city, exploring shopping, dining, living, and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region.

Trinetta drops off her two young boys with her mother, Betty Jean - and then pulls a disappearing act. BJ is a sassy, pull-no-punches, trademark McMillan matriarch, and she already has her hands full picking up the slack for her other kids, coaching her best friend Tammy through her own tribulations and dealing with two feuding sisters, all while holding down a job as a hotel maid. Who Asked You? raises questions about how we care for one another and how we set limits for those we love when the demands are too great.
