Bedtime stories are stories that are told after your child has gotten into bed for the evening. Many times they will ask for you to sit with them. This is an easy opportunity to offer to tell them a story. Young children especially love this because it is a treat for them and makes them feel truly important in that moment.

absolutely stunning.

Are you a parent struggling with getting your child go to bed? Fights over bedtime can be one of the biggest power struggles a parent has with his child, as many kids just don't want to go to bed at night. After a long day playing, running around and using energy children need to wind down. Putting them to bed and expecting them to fall asleep right away can be quite difficult, but having a bedtime routine where you read a story together can help them calm down, relax, and reduce their stress levels which will help them to sleep better. Bedtime stories are so important because they will help develop kids' imagination. By listening to the story their little brains receive so many ideas, and they are able to predict what is going to happen next or come up with their own endings. Imagination helps
