This was a present for my Mum, who I brought a soup maker for and the recipe book was not that good. So I purchased this one and she is really happy with it. When someone lives on their own, homemade soup is much better for them than the tinned or packet stuff. She adores homemade soup, so now she is set to go.

The Morphy Richards 48822 would win my best budget soup maker. Although it doesn't have the sauté function of the previous two models, if this feature isn't something you'll use, this is the machine for you. It has the same 1.6L capacity, as well as a 1000 watt motor. The simple modes include smooth, chunky, juice and blend.

Melt the butter and olive oil on a low heat. Then add the onions and leeks and cook until softened. Stir regularly. If your soup maker has a sauté function you can add directly into the maker. Add the broccoli, potato and stock and bring to the boil. Then add to the soup maker and put on a simmer cycle for about 21-25 minutes.
