There are full-scale accounts of the four battles - Busaco, Salamanca, Vitoria and the Nivelle - in which Wellington defeated his principal opponents of the War - Massena, Marmont, Jourdan and Soult. The officers and the men who served in the Peninsula left behind them many eye-witness descriptions, and it is on these, and other secondary sources of the history of the War, that the author has based his study.

Wellington was of the opinion that his hardest fought battle was Assaye in India but it was his dramatic victories achieved during the Peninsular War that built his international reputation as a great commander.
